

Author: Joseph "Skipper" Funderburg

Your author is a renown Cape Fear Coast pioneer surfer and waterman. He is known for his humor, perseverance and unsinkable nature. He grew up on the Cape Fear Coast, started his apprenticeship in surfing in the mid 1950s, played around with balsa surfboards in the late 1950s and then helped popularize stand up surfing by the early 1960s. He has worked as a horse stable owner and construction manager, but beginning in 1968 and for more than a third of a century, his work life was spent as a professional ship or yacht captain. He has lived a waterman's life and ridden waves all over the Atlantic Ocean, Pacific Ocean and elsewhere. As a well-seasoned traveler and a master mariner, the treasures he liberated always included good surf. He has been writing about surfing for over forty years and serves as the native Cape Fear Coast's preeminent surfing historian. He currently resides on the Cape Fear Coast with his wife and two children.

slap publishing
dash LLC

311 Florida Avenue • Carolina Beach, NC 28428
910.232.0604 • info@carolinabeach.net
www.carolinabeach.net